Exercise for next time:

In BSim, design a simulation according to the diagram below. Choose behaviors and parameters to make the robot (circle) find and move to the light source and stop there.

Hint: start simple and refine the simulation gradually.

You may add further complexity by adding hockey-pucks and having the robot avoid them.